

AGENCY ANALYSIS OF ECONOMIC AND
BUDGETARY EFFECTS OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

Agency: Illinois Emergency Management Agency

Part/Title: 32 Ill. Adm. Code Part 335

Please attempt to provide as dollar-specific responses as possible and feel free to add any relevant narrative explanation.

1. Anticipated effect on State expenditures and revenues.

- (a) Current cost to the agency for this program/activity.

$1,385,884-this includes total annual operating costs for the IEMA-Division of Nuclear Safety, Radioactive Materials Section.

- (b) If this rulemaking will result in an increase or decrease in cost, specify the fiscal year in which this change will first occur and the dollar amount of the effect.

No anticipated increases or decreases expected

- (c) Indicate the funding source, including Fund and appropriation lines, for this program/activity.

Radiation Protection Fund (0067)

- (d) If an increase or decrease in the costs of another State agency is anticipated, specify the fiscal year in which this change will first occur and the estimated dollar amount of the effect.

None anticipated

- (e) Will this rulemaking have any effect on State revenues or expenditures not already indicated above? Specify effects and amounts.

No anticipated effects on revenues or expenditures

2. Economic effect on persons affected by the rulemaking.

- (a) Indicate the economic effect and specify the persons affected:

Positive ☐ Negative ☐ No effect ☒

Persons affected: _____

Dollar amount per person

Total Statewide cost

- (b) If an economic effect is predicted, please briefly describe how the effect will occur.

N/A

- (c) Will the rulemaking have an indirect effect that may result in increased administrative costs? Will there be any change in requirements such as filing, documentation, reporting or completion of forms? Compare to current requirements.

An increase in administrative costs is not anticipated. Several changes are being made to align with federal rules and, in specific programmatic areas, these changes may reduce the need for advance authorization from the Agency.
